

DOLPHIN SPIRIT MESSAGE

6-13-11

The dolphins are here to assist Humanity in unlocking our key to self-knowledge. It is time for the human to remember the greater Self that links us to the interdependent Whole. This is represented within each of us by our intuitive voice. The dolphins remind each of us that we have always had this intuitive part of ourselves that allows us to reach out and connect from our hearts to the quantum field. The dolphins are telling us that the "Delphic Spirit" upon our planet is highly activated now and is restless to "share" with the humans. It has always been the purpose of the dolphins to establish and nurture the awakening of the human race. It is time for self-awareness to reign upon this great planet. It is time for us to access our higher consciousness and ability to serve as individualized units of consciousness within the "pod mind" of humanity through our very own free will. They remind us that our planet is very unique in that there is no other "set up" quite like ours, where humans have the ability to use light or darkness based on their own free will decisions. No one can make you do anything, and no one can stop you from becoming self aware, enlightened and a powerful representative of your authentic true self. The Dolphins, as a race, are fully enlightened and awakened souls. They have not chosen to go to sleep and awaken from a state of amnesia as the humans have. They have held the space for us for millions of years, as conscious breathers and emissaries of the Light. It has always been their Divine plan to assist us as a race when we began to awaken in mass numbers. They are holding the vibration of that which we are seeking. They are literally the "Rainbow Bridge" we are seeking to make the ascension curve with Mother Earth. Each day we are becoming more and more cognizant of our true nature as Beings of Light. The true rainbow spirit that the dolphins embody is made of all races, colors, countries, and species. As each river and waterway ultimately flows into the ocean, so is each human ultimately woven into the rainbow fabric of life through their unique signature. The golden threads within each of us are interwoven into the new pattern of magic and mastery for the human race.

The Dolphins are asking the human race, one by one to take up the task of creating a Universal worldwide system of human behavior that will stand the test of time. This will ultimately lift humanity into a new realm of life! This is reflected in the changes in our governments, educational and medical systems, and in the way we converse with other cultures and societies around the world. It is reflected in new ways to plant and harvest healthy organic food, and in world art and music. We are becoming more open to different belief systems and ways of healing and nurturing our spirituality. The dolphins tell us that these are all outer signs that a global inclusiveness is struggling to be born among us. It is time to be conscious participants, as the world of polarity drops away.

They tell us it is a time of completion for each individual human. It is time to make peace with your pain and your past and release it to the divinity within you. We are born of two spirits and that polarity is reflected in the world. The one spirit within us is fearful, arming itself and driven to defend. The other spirit is FREE, living the abundance of a limitless Earth that is only kept from true perfection by the choice to be small of spirit. There is a part of each of us that is male in expression, penetrating the surrounding world with the desire and will to possess things. And there is that female part of each of us that is yielding to the greater Will of Life, yielding a womb to bring forth the next generation in every lifetime. The Dolphins are asking us to balance these two halves within us in a harmonious way, being Dolphin like. The Dolphin Spirit is alive within each of us and is represented by our being playful and gentle with each other, while secretly powerful and deeply wise.

The Dolphin Spirit is revealed now to humanity as the dolphins swim peacefully each day with a smile on their face and in their hearts. They have shaped their bodies to fit perfectly into their watery world. They show us the way by not trying to force the world to fit their needs, instead adapting beautifully to fit into the world in which they live. Every culture and tradition upon our planet shows us that light is our final heritage. To be enlightened and overcome darkness, we must choose to master the challenges of our dark creations. The dolphins and whales are masters of sound and light, living in a realm of sonic waves they weave beneath the waves. Let us look today to our highest technologies as they are also systems of light from hydroponics to solar power systems. They remind us that we are also suited to become masters of light with our eyes, hands and brains so closely linked to theirs. They tell us that if we choose to accomplish our task of mastering light and sound, they will meet us every step of the way. Our shared destinies are to create new realms of life and experience here on this beautiful blue- green planet. They ask us to willingly choose to banish our dark ways that only hurt our planet and one another. They encourage us to continue to take up the challenge for better choices to be made each and every day. We are called to KNOW ourselves, our limits, our abilities, and our pure potentiality as well. The dolphins and whales are giving us their promise to lead us into the new realms of empowerment and what can best be described as the Golden Age! In choosing to be BEINGS OF LIGHT we will redeem ourselves and empower all of humankind to take up their roles as welcome companions of the Cetacean Souls in the Sea!
