Everyone has this organ that is located in between the two halves of your brain. The Pineal gland, often referred to as the 3rd Eye, is the biological organ that allows you to communicate with Spirit, with your Master Guides, with the Angels and with the Animals.

Everyone has a Pineal gland, but only a small percentage of the population uses it to communicate and use their innate ability to be Clairaudient. Some people are born with an activated 3rd eye and some have to practice. But know that everyone has this ability. Intention and practice to use it is everything!

I was born with an activated 3rd eye and quite naturally spoke with the animals. I did not consider it a gift when I was a child, as I thought everyone could talk with animals if they wanted to. In later years as an adult and while I was in college I shut off a big part of this gift as I entered the analytical world.

It was after an accident in 1994 and a near death experience that I re-activated this gift and realized how incredibly valuable it is to be able to speak directly to my Guides, to the Angels, and to the animals.

During the last ten years I have spent a lot of time coaching others to communicate telepathically. In this class I will share and teach processes that have been really helpful for others to develop their 3rd eye, their Intuition, and to communicate with their Guides, Angels, and Animal friends. It is amazing and everyone can do it with practice.

In this class we will also study some of the processes that are taught by Drunvalo Melchizedek through the Flower of Life teachings. One is called the 8 Beams of Light and is very powerful to help the individual activate and balance their 3rd Eye/Pineal.

In summary, the process of remembering, activating and using the 3rd eye effectively is based on Living from the Heart. Love is the vibration we align with each day to claim our amazing gift of Clairaudience.

We will help everyone move their energy out of their mind and from living in duality or polarization.

We will return to the ancient art of Living in Your All Knowing, All Loving Heart!
