

Message on Balance & Epigenetics with Laurie Reyon, the Dolphin Emissaries and Seth

Beloved Ones,

You have experienced an amazing unprecedented influx of Light, bathing the Earth and all her Life in Divine Light. The powerful portals of LIGHT that open each year are during the Equinox's and the Solstice's. They offer each of us the opportunity to lift up in our vibrations. This is for you as an individual, and for the collective of all of humanity.

My message today is to remind you to use the power of your intention to assimilate this powerful Light, and to project it into your daily life. The infusions of Light will greatly assist you in facing challenges with solution energy being readily available. Know that for every challenge there is a "Way Through" that can be accessed without the drama of the past, using only the power of ease and grace.

When we are vibrating with frequencies of Light that transcend the chaos, we are able to see viable solutions to our daily challenges. This perspective will motivate us to handle the events of our lives in ways that will actually enhance our Earthly experiences. We will then become Peace Commanding Presences, moving with ease and abounding joy.

As we move into our hearts and raise our vibration, we can become aware of the frequencies of the portals that create a "shift" in everyone's energy. I am just a gentle voice, reminding you to use this new and higher frequency to transcend any challenges, and rise up, actively using this shift of energy.

Today we are reminded that there is no further purpose to create Karma or deal with anything of the past that was NOT created with love. The light portals offer each of us gift of forgiveness and purging anything that is out of alignment with Love, and our true Divine essence. You now have a greater ability to access your Soul or I AM Presence. You then have the ability to assimilate the Light and Love and project it into your daily life. The Light of the Portals will gently illuminate all that is not loving and assist you in transmuting it and letting it go. What a gift from the Universe and the organizing principles that Guide our world.

The light portals bring us power and remind us to find BALANCE in our lives in every aspect. The first step in finding and then creating a balanced life comes from going within to see the places where we do not feel loved. Perhaps you are overworked, or study too much. Perhaps you are not allowing enough sleep or enough exercise? Perhaps you are giving too much of yourself to ideals that do not allow for the element of Service to enter. We all want to give, and we all want to receive, and the Circle of Life within each of us is always asking for balance. The Equinox has a way of bringing us back to center where we can lovingly examine the balance in the various aspects of how we are living our lives.

So let us remember to create Balance in our lives, and let us turn to those that do this so well. Let's bring in the Dolphins together to our message today as they are living embodiments of balance, all living with the pod mind, where everyone is cared for and loved.

FROM SETH:

The Equinox Portal this year has offered our world an opportunity to connect to a perfect zero point frequency. Twice a year on the Equinox, we are gifted with a balanced state when day and night are equal length. It is a reminder that more often than not, we need to create this balanced zero point state within our own energy field throughout the year. Let us bask in this Cosmic gift from the universe.

When we enter zero point, quantum possibilities open to us. It is the bridge between the worlds – the portal between physical reality and our pure potential. The Equinox offers us a peek into the vast infinite realm of 'all that is'!

When we envision balance, this includes all aspects of our being – our masculine and feminine energies, conscious and unconscious, human and divine self. When we tune to zero point, all aspects are allowed to blend in harmony and grace. We move out of polarity and truly experience the Unity consciousness and the oneness we all share.

We then can experience a vaster and fuller heart, with an increased capacity to LOVE on a deeper level. Zero Point is a Divine is a Divine gift from our Creator.

From Reyon:

Let us lovingly now invite the wise and joy filled ambassadors into our meditation today, seeking their amazing presence and help. I now call for the many species and members of the DOLPHIN COMMUNITIES of LIGHT AND PRESENCE in our world. I call out to the Etheric Dolphin pods that can arrive in your home in a moment of time, if you will allow for it. I call out to the physical dolphins in the oceans all over the world and we welcome you now to our healing meditation.

And as I allow my voice to be their voice, they gently remind us that they have come to our world from a place of enlightenment. They hold the codes of creation within them and have existed outside of negativity or polarity for 30 million years. They are whole brain Beings who long ago transcended the need to compete or fight for what humans call survival. They truly are the Emissaries of Love and Joy and have the physical and etheric capacity to help humans align with a higher vibration very quickly. They live their lives in pods in complete cooperation and transparency. They have nothing to hide, which makes them one of the most important group of healers our world has ever seen. Their advanced abilities allow them to LOOK into your bodies and immediately see any health maladies you have or emotional imbalances. Because they are completely telepathic they can tune into your thoughts and ideas from great distances.

When you meet the Dolphins, either in the etheric or in the physical oceans, they can help you achieve a higher frequency in your body, using their sono-genetic abilities. We have chosen to be here on Earth right now in the linear time frame to be of Service to you!

The DOLPHINS SPEAK:

You are a biological unit of light and you are a Holy ambassador of love in human form. Don't try so hard dear ones to do it right. Simply allow the softness of the incoming light to penetrate your heart, opening the door to a personal and even a planetary healing. Allow this energy to transform you into a place of peace, not outside yourself but within yourself.

We understand the polarity of Earth, and therefore your linear time in a way that allows us to be at one of your starting points, like today. And then moving through time, also see the finish line simultaneously. We can support you on these journeys, if you choose to call upon us, as we are in service to humanity and we are representatives of Source Light.

We see you as a Being such as ourselves, who originally answered the call to Serve here on this planet. Originally you are from another location, as we are, from deep space. We are all here on Earth to participate in the great experiment of Earth. The vibration and essence of what the experiment is about, is LOVE! When you agreed to be human and temporarily put yourself to sleep so that you would not immediately remember your true self, we also answered the call of Stewardship here on Earth. Our Creator wanted you to have many, many Beings that did not go to sleep all around you, to assist you in finding your way back to the heart. Your heart holds all of the original operating instructions for your life. When we connect with you, you are almost immediately moved into your heart as our auric energies generate joy and great love! There is healing as well within our energy.

Also know, that we hold the codes for your future, which we can share with you when you are ready. The OLD VIEW of your DNA said that your genes predetermine and control your physiologic and behavioral traits. You were taught that your DNA is genetically predisposed when You were born.

As your Science has evolved a bit, you now have the Science of Epigenetics, which has proven that your perceptions of the environment, including your consciousness, actively controls your genes. Epigenetics is applied consciousness in motion, where nothing is pre-determined and by shaping your own biology, you become the master of your own life.

And just in case you did not know, we the Dolphins are the Epigeneticists of the Human world. It is our designated task to calibrate and heal humans who ask for our help. We lovingly suggest you experiment with this knowledge, and come to the Dolphin community in thought, word, prayer, and physicality whenever you can.

But today, we ask for your permission to access your Source Point, or what you would call the nature of your personal consciousness. We want to give each person a DNA alignment of the highest light on this day. We come to you freely with no other reason or need. We are simply YOU somewhere in the future where you also will dedicate your lives to the Service of others that are evolving on their path back to Source.

Let us lovingly now connect through pure energy and intention to your Source Point. This is a place of origin that connects us Soul to Soul, and it exists within you. It allows for accelerated and magnificent transformations to happen when activated.

Allow our accelerated frequencies to merge with you, as only you can give permission for a merger of this type. We offer you support through simple energy structuring. Consider the possibilities for yourself if you allow yourself to heal your physical form and activate your highest potentialities!

Say yes to love. Love for yourself first, and when you are ready ask for everyone and everything around you. Love is the only energy that is real, and it is transformative. From here, all is well, and we are simply becoming again that which we already are.

When you are vibrating with frequencies of Light that transcend the chaos, you will be surprised at the viable and peaceful solution energy that will be revealed to you regarding your every daily challenges. When you know that you can access a loving solution to every part of your life, your Earth life will be greatly enhanced, and you will find yourself living in ease and abounding joy, just like the Dolphins!

We ask you to remember us as you navigate your lives and we will come to you when asked. We will always offer you an upgrade as an awakening member of Humanity and Life.

We are sacred Alchemists and we are dedicated to the awakening of Humanity. We are Divine Intervention and we love you so! Our prayer is that by choosing to upgrade your DNA you actualize your greatest potential! We ask that you retain longevity, perfect radiant health, and live your perfect and Abundant Life as Conscious Stewards of the Earth! Remember you are the Masters of your own True Identity. We pray, that each day you live as Conscious Creators, assisting us in birthing a new world of Heaven, right here on Earth.

We are the Dolphins
Namaste

Seth with the Dolphins:

Let us now enter into the sacred geometry of the DOUBLE PYRAMID or OCTAHEDRON.

Visualize yourself sitting within your Octahedron and creating a ZERO POINT FIELD in your body.

ZERO POINT in the underlying energetic of absolute interconnected stillness from which all experiences are born. It provides CLARITY and allows the mind to stop offering you a false reality.

ZERO POINT is the presence of all that is, infinite and neutral. From this place you are offered a boundless state of possibility.

As we each achieve this vibration of Unity, we enter a state of rapid evolution and the illusions of the 3rd dimension can gently dematerialize.

Also note that the Earth is now bathed in this frequency of Balance on the Equinox and we are all receiving a download of Zero Point energy. This is the frequency of the Universal Mind. This influences how matter is formed. In the higher realms it is known as the Genesis code of your Universe. I tell you that the human DNA is coded to remember all at Zero Point. As the conscious mind evolves towards reaching enlightenment, the Zero Point field plays a vital role influencing the future outcome of the material world.

This is an Ascension wave that offers you a process to transcend Duality and creating a coherent state of connection and integration. The unifying principle of Zero Point assists with neutralizing all polarized forces into a harmonious state of Oneness. Use this time wisely my Creator friends and enjoy the gifts of the Spring Equinox.
